

LEARNING Powers

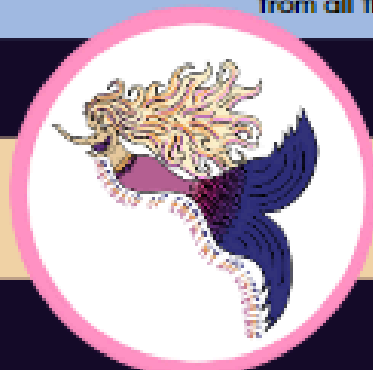

A legendary human-like being of great stature and strength. Giants stomp their way through any challenge and don't let anything stand in their way.

A mysterious creature known as Nessie. Nessie is a curious creature who is busy exploring the depths of Scotland's Lochs. We can be curious and explore the depth of our learning by questioning and seeking knowledge.

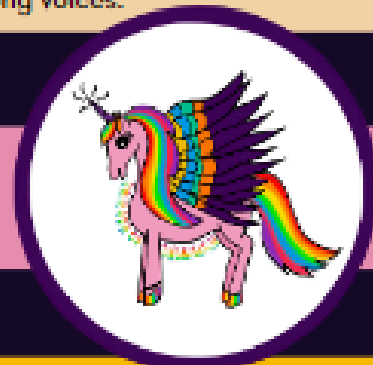

A strong fire breathing creature. Our strengths and interests are our fire, burning within us and pushing us to learn

A magical being with powers, fairies work together to achieve the common goal. One fairy can't be responsible for collecting all the teeth from all the children in the world!

A sea dwelling creature with a mesmerising singing voice. Everyone has a voice, we can listen to them all with respect and share our ideas using our strong voices.

Magical creatures that represent happiness, freedom and healing
A creative creature who reaches for the stars and creates new ways of learning.

Born from the ashes, phoenixes grow and change from the ashes. We can grow and change by learning from our experiences and mistakes.
